International bryological meetings - june 2014

Information about accomodation

The Cercle des Naturalistes de Belgique a.s.b.l from Vierves-sur-Viroin takes care of the logistic for the accommodation and meals provided during the International Bryological Meeting.

You will be accommodated in an old railway station, completely restored and modernised (Ecosite de la Vallée du Viroin) and in the building called «Le Coup de Cœur».

You will find a dining room with a skilled kitchen staff, a fully equipped auditorium with 92 seats, TV room, documentation centre, botanical garden, garden with medicinal plants, educational trail dedicated to Hymenoptera, sports field...

All rooms have central heating, sink (hot and cold water), toilets and showers at every floor.

The following rooms are at your disposal:

- 6 rooms with 2 single beds (bunk beds)
- 10 rooms with 4 single beds (2 bunk beds)
- 2 bedrooms with 3 single beds (2 or 3 bunk beds)

The rooms are spread across two adjacent buildings, with the same level of comfort.
We also have 5 rooms of a high level of comfort (shower, sink) in the building «Le Coup de Cœur».

Please let us know in advance if you would like to share your room with one of the participants in particular and we will do our best to satisfy you!

Best regards.

Léon Woué and Philippe De Zuttere
